Las Vegas Attractions

Whether you're interested in the entertainment offered on the Las Vegas Strip or the beautiful landscape of the Mojave Desert, Las Vegas has something to offer for everyone.

The modernization of hotels, casinos, restaurants and residential high-rises, along with spectacular stage performances, the Strip has established Las Vegas as one of the most popular destinations for tourists to visit throughout the year.

Some of the more popular free attractions visible from the Strip include the floral displays in the conservatory and water fountains at Bellagio, the Sirens show at Treasure Island (TI), the volcano at The Mirage, and the Fall of Atlantis and Festival Fountain at Caesars Palace. MGM Grand features a glass-sided lion habitat inside the casino area which up to six lions are shown every day.

For the visitors to our fabulous city interested in the outdoors, hiking in Red Rock Canyon, fishing and boating at Lake Mead, and skiing and snowboarding at Mt. Charleston are just approximately a half hour away. Some other adventures in the surrounding areas to visit include Hoover Dam, Valley of Fire, Death Valley, the Grand Canyon, and Zion National Park.
